

Tips for carbohydrate counting

1

1 tbsp boiled rice, quinoa, bulgur, couscous or grains
5 g carbohydrates

2

1 large tbsp of cooked legumes such as chickpeas, kidney beans or lentils
5 g carbohydrates

3

Cooked pasta, boiled rice or oven-baked potatoes
 $\frac{1}{4}$ of the weight = g carbohydrates

4

1 lasagne sheet
15 g carbohydrates

5

1 small dl of cooked pasta
10 g carbohydrates

6

1 boiled potato the size of an egg
10 g carbohydrates

7

Half the weight of whole wheat and white bread = g carbohydrates

8

1 handful of nuts or almonds
5 g carbohydrates

9

Blended vegetable soup without potatoes or other starchy ingredients
5-7 g carbohydrates per dl or per 100 g

10

Blended vegetable soup with potatoes, lentils or other starchy ingredients
7-10 g carbohydrates per dl or per 100 g

11

1 small handful of fruit
10 g carbohydrates

12

1 tbsp raisins or a children's package
10 g carbohydrates

13

70% chocolate: $\frac{1}{3}$ of the weight = g carbohydrates
Milk chocolate: $\frac{1}{2}$ of the weight = g carbohydrates

14

Half the weight of cake = g carbohydrates

15

Sugari candy such as wine gum or liquorice: $\frac{1}{4}$ of the weight = g carbohydrates or 2-4 pieces of candy:
10 g carbohydrates

16

'Old-fashioned' ice cream cones:
1 ball: 10 g carbohydrates
1 cone: 10 g carbohydrates
1 chocolate covered marshmallow:
10 g carbohydrates
Cream: 0 g carbohydrates
Sweets: 10 g carbohydrates

17

Ice lolly
10-15 g carbohydrates

